TO ALL CONTACTS

It seems that suddenly I'm building up many PK projects...since a "quiet period" where I had no PK projects to speak of. I have the 'Nevada PK Project,' the "Pratt PK Project", the "Pro Football PK Project" and the NASA PK Project". Today am adding still another.

Last night my boy, age 8, and me watched a TV show which showed how the animals are being killed off around the world...to where there are a very few left. We watched a mother polar bear romping happily with her two cubs...until a helicopter landed, men jumped out, and pumped bullet after bullet into the mother bear...which fell, helpless, able only to call out to her two little ones which huddled nearby in fear. We watched while a big brave cowboy riding herd on a bunch of cattle unlimbered his rifle and shot a tiny prairie dog, which fell backward...tried in vain to "talk" with its paws...then was blown into the air with a second shot. At this point my little boy was screaming in horror...tears streaming down his face...begging me not to let any more be killed. Next scene was big brave hunters surrounding some seals, ~~XXXX~~ which were frolicking with their young. Obviously the seals didn't know about what kind of living thing the humans were, nearby. The humans beat their brains out with clubs...mama ~~XXXX~~ seal, daddy, seal, then baby seals. At this point my boy was hysterical. He's queer. He loves tiny animals..or any animals, for that matter. We watched natives slaughter giraffes; we watched humans slaughter kangaroos, with the baby still in it's pouch; and so on and on. It was the absolute worst program I've ever watched. And yet...since it was truth, told through the camera's eyes...it set fire to a fury inside me unmatched by anything ever in my life.

There is one thing...I wish to interject here...which I have not told you. Psi-power (PK mechanisms), besides not being limited by time, distance or mass...ARE OMNISCIENT AND OMNIPRESENT. I'll wait until you look those up, if you don't know what they mean. Let me spell it out. When I "PK" Joe Doakes...that means I send powers and mechanisms which cannot be seen, smelled, tasted, felt, or heard...to make a disaster area out of Joe Doakes. And the outcome is absolutely inevitable. It's just a matter of when. The "PK" has unlimited intelligence to fulfill its mission...and in case Joe Doakes changes his geographical location...the PK is everywhere ~~at~~ once.

Okay. So here is what I am now doing. I AM SENDING FORTH, ISSUING, PK MECHANISMS (PSI FORCE) ~~TO~~ ATTACK HUNTERS ALL OVER THE WORLD...in effect, I am arming every animal in this world which might be hunted, no matter how small, or how big, with a weapon far deadlier than the hunter's gun. Let me spell it out. From now on, whenever a big brave cowboy takes out his rifle and blows out the brains of a small, innocent prairie dog...immediately that cowboy is an accident waiting to happen...to be paid off in the same coin as he killed the prairie dog! If a hunter kills a little seal...same thing. If a business executive kills a bear, or a wolf, or anything at all...same thing. Just a matter of time until he gets the same thing from the PK force stalking him! He'll just get it...in a different place...under different conditions.

In short...from now on...any hunter that kills any animal, creature or bird...which he doesn't have to eat to live...will be himself killed, destroyed, by a PK force which will follow him, stalk him, until it brings it about!

I'm not interested in people who have to make their living by selling skins. Or any other parts of animals. If they kill, they will be killed. The PK will take care of these hunters, these people, automatically. Let me make this clear: if hunters want target practice...let them shoot at tin cans or paper targets. THEY HAD BETTER NOT SHOOT AT ANIMALS OR BIRDS UNLESS THEY HAVE TO HAVE THE GAME TO EAT TO LIVE!

This is the absolute rule: only persons who have to have food, game, to eat to live...will be safe from this omnipresent, omniscient psi-power guard over the animals. Any other persons...will be ruthlessly destroyed, after they ruthlessly destroy any animal or bird unnecessarily.

Now...I have already issued this PK attack...but one thing remains to be done which is quite important. WARN PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD THAT THIS IS IN EFFECT.

To do this...I have only one way. Otto Binder is doing some articles on my work in Saga Magazine. I am herewith begging Otto to include this intelligence, this information, in one of the forthcoming articles...so that hunters will be warned.

I don't care if hunters laugh at what I say...it's like laughing while ~~XXXXXX~~ shooting Indians at Custer's last stand.

If Otto can get this in to Saga...it will wave a lot of people's lives. Because the PK attack is already out, unleashed...and each and every animal in the world is now armed and ready...even though it doesn't know it. As soon as that animal is killed by a hunter, no matter where in the world it is...if it is unnecessary...the PK will then attack and destroy the human hunter.

Just as a matter of human interest...my little boy begged me last night to do just this...it was HIS idea. He said, "Daddy, please use your PK to keep all the little animals from being killed!" With tears in his eyes. And I agreed with him; wholeheartedly and completely. And so be it.

-- Before I forget...I have a new phone number...855-2843. Better mark that down.

One last thought: watched the Senior Bowl today. They made a big mistake. Put Weeb Ewbank, coach of the Jets, in charge of a team. Of course his team lost...because he's saturated with "attack PK".

That's it for now. You can look...in time ahead...for a spate of deadly "accidents" involving hunters...unless Otto Binder can get the word out in time, on a national level.
